

The Guild of Natural Science
Illustrators Northwest
Presents:

Natural Musings

On view at the Washington State
Convention Center
Level 2 - 2AB Lobby
June 30th- September 25th, 2018

Artists have been inspired by the natural world, ever since the first humans painted on cave walls. Nature provides us with not only food and shelter, but also a connection to something bigger than ourselves. Natural Musings is a collection of works created by artists from the GNSI-NW, sharing pieces inspired by the beauty of the world around them.

Contributing Artists:

Susan Jones Davis, Marilyn Droege, Krister Eide, Emily M. Eng, Linda Feltner, Jessica Heide, Janis Howes, Barbara Ierulli, Kami Koyamatsu, Valerie Lodi, Angie Peace, Véronique Robigou, Elizabeth Smith, Cynthia Tamayao, and Margaret Trent

About GNSI-NW:

GNSI-NW is a group of artists/scientists from the Pacific Northwest who focus on illustrating the natural world. Applying scientific discipline to creativity, members strive to produce images combining both scientific accuracy and artistic integrity.

Want to learn more? Visit our website: www.gnsinw.org
Or like us on Facebook: Guild of Natural Science Illustrators NW